

Press release
News Culture/Sport/Society

Brussels, 17 March 2015

An International Sports Film Festival in Brussels

Sport's greatness and values conveyed through images

Athletes who help each other, supporters who unite, raw emotions and fine gestures that give sport its tremendous cachet. The Brussels European FICTS Sports Film Festival" will place the spotlight on the power of the image in the international sporting world.

A stunning schedule!

Centre culturel Wolubilis – Woluwe-Saint-Lambert
picture@georgesdekinder.com

The Wallonia-Brussels Panathlon will thus be unfurling the red carpet from 14 to 17 September 2015, at the Wolubilis Cultural Village in Woluwe-Saint-Lambert (Brussels). There, you'll be able to experience unique moments, in the form of projections, exhibitions, special screenings, thrilling sporting initiations and demonstrations, top-level conferences and exceptional encounters with sporting and cultural personalities of the highest order.

A festival at Europe's heart

The Brussels European FICTS Sports Film Festival will bring the Belgian and European sporting and cultural worlds together for a 4-day encounter celebrating the very finest sporting images. Organised to coincide with the European Week of Sport, the Festival will benefit from the cooperation of numerous European partners, giving it a true international flavour.

The Wallonia-Brussels Panathlon

Spawned by an international movement, the Wallonia-Brussels Panathlon association was founded in 2003. Ever since, the association has been pursuing a sole aim: to restore all of sport's colourful splendour by promoting its finest values, namely Fair Play, Respect, Solidarity and Friendship. Via its actions conducted daily on and off the fields of play and through its vast network of members, the Wallonia-Brussels Panathlon aims to be one of the key players in all issues connected with the promotion of sporting values and ethics.

www.panathlon.be

Media contact

Anaïs Debraeckelaer, Communications Officer
anaïs@panathlon.be / + 32 2/423.51.85

Contacts organisation

Jean-Pierre Brouhon, Director
jeanpierre.brouhon@gmail.com

Kathleen Monseu, Project Manager
kathleen@panathlon.be /+ 32 2/423.51.74